

Rules:

Round 1:

- 1) It is an objective type paper.
- 2) Decision on the cutoff and the number of teams qualifying for the next round will solely depend on the event organiser.

Round 2:

- 1) It is a hands on session.
- 2) Teams are expected to solve the problem statement with least possible components and right approach towards the output.
- 3) Team using optimal components with correct output will be the winners of this event.